Don't let your dog read this!

Not all flying disc events are for dogs. The Hyperflite Youth Flying Disc Championships are coming to a park near you and are open to all (human) youngsters 14 years of age or younger as of January 1. There is no charge to compete and families are welcome to spectate and cheer on their kids.

Visit the Hyperflite website at www.hyperflite.com for rules, competition formats and other information. It's fun, it's free and your kids will have a blast. Remember, don't tell Fido...he wouldn't understand.
